

CITY OF WASHINGTON, ILLINOIS

Committee of the Whole Agenda Communication

Meeting Date: January 12, 2026

Prepared By: Jon Oliphant, AICP, Planning & Development Director

Agenda Item: Consideration of Expanded Remote Attendance for City Boards and Commissions

Explanation: The City Council approved an ordinance (attached) on January 5 to expand the allowance for remote attendance to include “unexpected child care obligations” and “performance of active military duty as a service member.” Prior to that amendment, the City’s Rules of Procedure recognized three reasons for remote attendance:

- Illness or disability;
- Employment or City business; and
- A family or other emergency

Fiscal Impact: N/A

Action Requested: The current ordinance aligns with State statute. Staff requests direction about a possible amendment to expand the allowance of the aforementioned remote attendance reasons to also apply for other Boards and Commissions. This would allow those members that have an eligible reason that prohibits in-person attendance to potentially be able to participate remotely. This is scheduled for discussion at the January 12 Committee of the Whole meeting.
