2023-2024 Budget

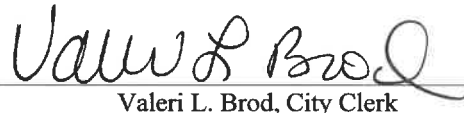

Christopher Warren from Locust Street in Washington expressed concern about drainage issues. He shared that he has been personally affected with issues in the Felker's Addition. He stated that he was told their system would handle a 20-year event and it has failed several times. He also stated that water has come through his egress windows. Mr. Warren shared that he relandscaped to help avoid more flooding and he has sent a message to Mr. Carr.

City Administrator Jim Snider shared that Council started to review the budget on January 3, 2023. The proposed budget is $34,824,074. Mr. Snider stated that this is an incremental budget with some projects holding over from previous years. He acknowledged a budget item that will be discussed at tonight's Committee of the Whole meeting.

Mayor Manier closed the Public Hearing at 6:34 p.m.

Adjournment At 6:34 p.m. Alderperson Dingleline moved to adjourn; Alderperson Brownfield seconded.

Motion carried unanimously by voice vote.
