Mayor Elected to the IML Board of Directors

CHICAGO— The Illinois Municipal League (IML) elected officers and members to its Board of Directors at the 105th Annual Conference, held September 20-22 at the Hilton Chicago and attended by more than 2,000 local elected and appointed officials.

On Saturday, September 22, 2018, the IML membership unanimously elected Macomb Mayor Michael J. Inman to serve a one-year term as President. Also elected during the conference were Mayor Leon Rockingham, Jr. of North Chicago as First Vice President and Mayor Ricky J. Gottman of Vandalia as Second Vice President.

In addition to the officers, 36 Vice Presidents were elected to serve a one-year term on the statewide organization's Board of Directors. Mayor Gary Manier has served as a Vice President since 2013 and was elected again this year. "Through my interaction with mayors from across the state, I will be able to assist in solving some of the very real issues our community and state face," said Manier. "I am excited to exchange ideas and share solutions as we advocate for local government at the state and federal level."

ABOUT THE MAYOR

Mayor Manier has served as Mayor of Washington since 2001 and is a life-long resident of Washington. Prior to being elected Mayor, he served on the Washington Community High School Board of Education, the Washington High School Football's 12th Man organization, and has coached baseball and basketball over the years. He is a member of the Lions Club, and the Heart of Illinois Mayor's Association. Manier and his wife, Lada, have 2 children and 3 grandchildren.

ABOUT THE ILLINOIS MUNICIPAL LEAGUE

The Illinois Municipal League is the statewide organization representing local communities throughout Illinois. Founded in 1913, IML has worked continuously for the benefit of all 1,298 municipalities in Illinois to provide a formal voice on matters involving common interests.
